With lots to discover, inside and out, Snibston will amaze people of all ages.

DISCOVERY MUSEUM
Here you will find plenty of interactive exhibits that explore science, industry, technology, art and history.

Inside the Museum
- Lift a Mini car and challenge a robot
- See the only surviving standing gauge steam locomotive in Britain
- Be inspired by the award winning Fashion Gallery
- Marvel at the oldest remnants of medieval mines in Europe
- See a working steam Beam Engine built in 1879
- Have fun in the under fives soft play area

Outside
- See the colliery buildings - rare survivals of the industry and protected as a scheduled monument
- Climb, slide and swing through the Big Sand Pit and Mini Miners’ Playpark
- Younger visitors can make a splash in the Wild Water play area

A Trip to the Past
Snibston is on the site of a former colliery created by world famous engineer George Stephenson.

Colliery Tours
Now you can experience the reality of working in a mine with a fascinating guided tour of the colliery buildings.*

Train Rides
Take a diesel train ride along the restored colliery railway.*

COUNTRY PARK
The 100 acre country park which neighbours Snibston Discovery Museum is FREE to enter. The park has a diverse range of wildlife habitats including ponds, fishing lakes, beautiful picnic spots and the Grange Nature Reserve.

The two fishing lakes have 40 fishing pegs, including some for anglers with disabilities. Daily and season permits are available by calling 01530 278444.

CENTURY THEATRE
The Century Theatre, Britain’s oldest surviving mobile theatre, now has its home at Snibston. It has a 200 seat auditorium and full size stage yet can be packed into four lorry trailers! It now hosts an exciting schedule of events, films and activities. For tickets and enquiries, call Snibston on 01530 278444 or Ashby TIC on 01530 411767.
