Shops

Visit the Roman Baths shops, in the lower museum and at the exit, which are open daily, selling a wide range of books, postcards and unique gifts.
At the heart of Bath stand the remains of one of the finest spas of the ancient world. See the ruins of the temple of Minerva. Visit the bath-house where people bathed nearly 2000 years ago.

Arriving
Allow at least two hours to get the most from your visit.

Late night opening
Relax and enjoy the Roman Baths by torchlight on summer evenings. The site and shop are open until 10pm during July and August.
Museum displays
Discover how the Romans built this magnificent monument at Aquae Sulis. Explore the extensive ruins and treasures of the site, using the best of modern interpretation.

Film projections
See dramatic reconstructions of Roman life, based on the stories of real people who lived in Aquae Sulis and visited the Roman Baths.

Computer animations
Make the imaginative leap across 2000 years with our fully animated computer graphics.

Interact with Romans
Meet Roman costumed characters every day, and hear their stories. Many of them are featured on our special audioguide for children, narrated by Michael Rosen.
Audioguides
Listen to our audioguides in 7 languages, with a special one for children in English and French, included in your visit.

The Pump Room
Enjoy morning coffee, lunch or afternoon tea, accompanied by music from the Trio or pianist, in the magnificent 18th C. Pump Room. Try a glass of Spa water from the fountain.

The Fashion Museum
Visit the acclaimed Fashion Museum on a joint saver ticket, valid for seven days. The museum is housed ten minutes’ walk away in Bath’s stunning Assembly Rooms.

Walk where Romans walked on 2000 year-old pavements beside the steaming pool.
